

1933 Pantomime

Pantomime Rehearsals are in full swing. The Pantomime will be given as usual in the Schools, starting on Boxing Day. A booking plan will be found in the usual place and details and prices etc., will be published in due course. "Hey Diddle Diddle" is the theme, and the cow will do its best to jump over the moon, the choruses will be as good and as charming as ever and the stage effects startling. There are the accustomed amusing adventures, and the ever-new old happy ending.
