Welcome to a Society new to NODA and what a pleasure it was to be a member of such an enthusiastic audience. This was truly a community performance with many very funny remarks from the audience which added to the atmosphere. The scenery, costumes & lighting were very effective with much thought having gone into their preparation. The cast worked as a team with good concentration and the comedy was well handled by the Ugly Sisters (David Waugh & Ian Owers) and Buttons (Dean Patrick) who gave a very polished & comic performance. The singing was of a high standard particularly from Prince Charming (Carolynn Dickinson) & Cinderella (Emma Smith) and the whole cast worked with great enthusiasm. A very enjoyable evening.
