Show Report

A fun Pantomime for the whole family, written by the Director, using very small, young children as the Dwarfs who were well disciplined and very talented with "Sarge" taking the limelight. Characterisations from the rest of the cast were excellent with plenty of comedy from the Dame (David Waugh) & "Billy Whizz (Dean Patrick). The Wicked Queen (Carolynn Dickinson) was very hissable and looked gorgeous and Snow White (Hannah Birch) and the Prince (Amy-Rose Atkinson) provided the romance very effectively. The rest of the cast gave wholehearted support with their acting, singing and movement. The sets were simple, well lit, colourful and made by the cast and back stage crew. The costumes were a credit to the company and the Wardrobe Mistress (Carolynn Dickinson) & her Assistants (Heather Foote & the girls at Helen Sykes). Overall a very entertaining show which the full house thoroughly enjoyed.
