

Cast

Sheriff.....Edward Turner
Guard.....Mark Grainger
Maid Marion.....Emma Turner
Tommy.....Hannah Thorne
Jane.....Laura Honiwell
Nurse Glucose.....Graham Thorne
Robin Hood.....Carolynn Dickinson
Simon the Spyman.....Terry Worsnop
Slippery Sam.....Mark Law
Dennis the Menace.....Trevor Learoyd
Betty Beechnut.....Christine Milner
King Richard the Lionheart.....John Honiwell
Friarress Tuck.....Frances Grainger
Little Jean.....Christine Walton
Reindeer.....Helen Ellis
Ben Turner
Young girl.....Sarah Brown
Ghost.....Roland Cross
Knight.....Roger Harington
Goblins.....Clair Kennedy, Tristan Grainger
Villagers:- Tristan Grainger, John Honiwell, Liz
Honiwell, Geoff Hoyles, Mavis Hoyles, Claire Kennedy,
Judith Stonestreet
Dancers:- Charlotte Cliff, Natalie Haynes, Julie Patrick, Gemma Webster.

There will be in interval between Act I and Act II during which time refreshments will be available.

Front of House: Norman Walker

Musicians: Rosaleen Danby (piano)
Michael Danby (keyboard)

Choreography: Sylvia Crowther

Set: Heather Foote, Virginia Harington, Andy Worthington, Jackie Worthington, Mark Worthington.

Stage Management Co-operative: Roland Cross,
Susan Forrest, Diane Law.

Prompter: Peter Kershaw

Lighting: Peter Knowles

Directed by: Roger Harington

Thanks to: Bramley C of E Primary for the Lights

Script provided by NODA Pantomimes, London WC1H 8AU

And to follow this? If you would like to be involved in further productions...and show how next year could be better...please contact Roger Harington on 552557

Programme Notes

Nurse Glucose is to stand for Parliament on a "Back to my Place" ticket.

The Sheriff of Nottingham has been appointed the Chairman of the local Police Committee.

Robin Hood has been on holiday in France with Slippery Sam but claims that "We are just good friends".

Maid Marion is campaigning for non-Transvestite Pantomimes and means next year to star opposite a Real Man.

King Richard came out - woops - came back just in time.

Simon the Spyman will never again play the part of one who is intellectually-challenged.

Dennis the Menace has resigned from Politics to spend more time with Beryl the Peril.

The Stage Crew have taken over the contract from Group 4 to lose the dungeon prisoners.

The Babes in the Wood are looking for their Absentee father who can't afford to visit them.

The Reindeer claim abuse of their contract which clearly states: Reindeer should not work with actors (The Santa Clause).

Bramley Parish

presents

Babes

in the Wood

by

John Morley

St Margaret's Church, Newlay Lane, Bramley

17th, 18th & 19th February 1994

Programme 10p