A message from the Chairman

I am delighted to say that we have a few new faces in this year's production of 'The Queen of Hearts' as well as some familiar to those who have supported us in previous years. As chairman I am proud to be associated with such a talented, hard-working and committed group as the BPTP and feel sure that you too will appreciate the skilfully written script, wide age range of our cast, wonderful sets, stunning costumes plus the talented on stage performances. The story is really a lesson to us all where do we draw the line and stand up for what is right. Alice arrives in Wonderland with her fresh, young eyes, notes what is going on and cares about the downtrodden. Most characters accept the status quo of the unjust rule and terror by a queen with personality problems and feel powerless to change anything. Don't panic, the script is fun, the characters sympathetic and amusing and as in all pantomimes good triumphs in the end. I'm sure you'll have a really good evening – the rehearsals have been so good I'll be there every night!

A message from the Director

Hi folks. Once again it's that time of year when we invite the people of Bramley to share our pantomime although we realise that some of you travel from much further away to support us. We appreciate that we have a very loyal audience but it's also very encouraging to see new faces every year. We have a great and diverse range of people in the group with a wonderfully diverse range of skills and talents. It never ceases to amaze me how all these contributions, no matter how big or small, gradually come together to produce our annual pantomime. The production involves many hours of creativity including the scenery, the costumes and many seemingly small but essential props. There are also many mundane tasks like sweeping floors, making tea and tidying up but whatever people can contribute it is always valued and appreciated. This year we are presenting a less traditional panto, 'The Queen of Hearts'. We truly hope you enjoy your evening as there would be no point to all this without you. Watch this space for details of our Summer Show coming soon.
Best Wishes.
