A Message from the Chairman

Welcome and I hope you are fit and well to play your part as a responsive and active audience. Sadly, January saw the death of Alan Jackson, a committed and active member of BPTP. He will have been seen on stage by many of you but you will all hear and have seen his work. He produced the tickets and posters for this year as well as all the backing tracks and sound effects. We are delighted to have his granddaughter in our show this year to continue the family involvement. Now on with the show. Sinbad, a story for today, featuring evil, bravery, deceit and above all love which wins through in the end. Hope you enjoy it!
