Dean Patrick - Director & Choreographer

With a passion for theatre arts and the community, Dean has a wealth of experience directing, choreographing, performing, leading community-based theatre projects and teaching. Having trained with the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art, he returned to further study theatre during 2020 at the University of York. Dean's breadth of work has ranged from the Heydays (aged over 55) at Leeds Playhouse, to the children and young people of youth theatre company Class Act, and the performing arts schools of Stagecoach. In 2021, he became a director of Bramley Community Arts CIC and as part of Leeds Year of Culture 2023, produced Bramley & Stanningley's first arts and culture festival. Last year, he was also a Judge for UK Pantomime Association and travelled around England adjudicating professional pantomimes. His credits include productions at The West Yorkshire Playhouse, Leeds Town Hall and Bradford Alhambra theatre(s), as well as award winning pantomimes at Morley Town Hall, Snow White at Castleford Phoenix Theatre, Shout! The mod musical at the Carriageworks Theatre, Made in Dagenham at Ossett Town Hall, Boogie Nights at Cleckheaton Town Hall, The Addams Family at Batley Town Hall and a UK touring production of the musical Godspell.

Emma Smith - Musical Director

Emma Smith has returned to being Musical Director of BPTP with the assistance of her son, Joe Smith. Emma currently performs on stage and sings with Leeds G & S, LIDOS and Leeds Musical Theatre Choir as well as running Class Act Youth Theatre with Dean Patrick. Emma has been singing all her life, starting with the choir at St Peter's Church in Bramley as well as 10 years with Leeds Youth Opera. She has taken on many roles including both Cinderella and The Baker's Wife in Into the Woods, Olive in 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, Michaela in Carmen and Miss Schlesen in Satyagraha. She has run children's choirs and singing groups in St Peter's Church and Christ Church Primary School in the past and has thoroughly enjoyed her return to leading singing again. Having Joe arranging all the musical numbers has been such a great asset to the society and assisted Emma greatly.

Joe Smith - Assistant Musical Director

Joe is currently in his final year at Leeds Conservatoire studying composition as well as being MD to ladies choir, String of Beads and assistant MD for Leeds Youth Opera.

From Our Chair

A very warm welcome to our 2024 pantomime of Snow White, our third production at Leeds West Academy. This is the first year I've had the privilege to serve as Chair of Bramley Parish Theatre Players but I've been a part of the group for over thirty years. I've seen a lot of change during this time and I've seen a lot of people come and go. One thing that doesn't change, however, is the hard work and enthusiasm of everyone in the group. From principals to prop makers, chorus to coffee makers, backstage crew to box office, everyone is keen to do their best and make sure we present the best production we can. You will see we have some wonderful young talent on stage. It's so rewarding to see new people develop over time and increase in confidence. We also have a long history of parents joining their kids on stage so we really are a family panto. Enjoy! Linda Birch

From Our President

I am honoured to have been chosen as the first President of BPTP. Over the years, I have seen the group produce increasingly sophisticated shows but retaining their local appeal. Our numbers have swelled to fill the stage at Leeds West Academy but we have retained our friendliness and care for fellow members of the group. What may surprise you is that for this production to go ahead, there are far more people you don't see, than those you will interact with on stage. Edward Turner
